HARDING FAVORED BY LEADERS

G. O. P. Unanimous for President's Renomination in 1924

LITTLE OPPOSITION SEEN

Powerful States Will Present Solid Front in Race

By HERBERT W. WALKER

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Republican political leaders throughout the country are unanimous for the renomination of President Harding, a poll of the Republican national committee by the United Press, showed today.

Every reply received in response to a request for comment on Harding's candidacy as announced by Attorney General Daugherty brought a prediction that the president would be re-nominated with little opposition. Likewise the committeemen made optimistic prophecies as to his chances for re-election. Many stated that delegations from their states would be solidly pledged to Harding and the people of their states strongly favored his candidacy.

The president has the strong support of committeemen from the thickly populated states with their big blocks of War Weeks, of Massachusetts; Secretary of War Weeks, of Massachusetts; Senator Pepper, of Pennsylvania, and Charles D. Hilles, of New York, and R. K. Hynicka, of Ohio.

WISCONSIN IS SILENT
Some of the committeemen could not be reached, due to their absence from the country. No reply was received from Senator LaFollette's state of Wisconsin.

Among the views of these political leaders representing all sections of the country, the following are typical: Maine: Guy P. Gannett, after a conference with the president at Miami, wired:

"I am confident no opposition will arise in Maine to give President Harding an unqualified endorsement for re-nomination. Those western states which are just now inclined toward socialism have no sympathetic response in Maine. We have our parlor Bolsheviks, to be sure, but they are lonely."

New Hampshire: F. W. Estabrook: "I have no doubt that the voters of this state will send to the next convention a solid delegation in President Harding's favor."

Missouri: J. L. Babler: "Missouri Republicans are solidly for renomination of President Harding. We feel that President Harding entered upon his duties when the country was in a serious situation and that we are now emerging from chaos into an era of commercial prosperity."

PREDICTS RE-ELECTION

Minnesota: J. A. Caswell: "I am firmly of the opinion that the Minnesota delegation will support Mr. Harding, and that he will be re-elected. The agricultural situation is critical, and there is a possibility that this will affect the result in the northwest. In the last election, the Farmer-Labor party utterly ignored Senator Kellogg's record in solving agricultural problems, and concentrated on farmer troubles, which are real enough. God knows, in any event the Republican campaign in Minnesota will be an easy one."

Arkansas: H. L. Remmell: "The Republicans of Arkansas are perfectly unanimous for the renomination of President Harding and believe he will be triumphantly re-elected on the record of his administration."

West Virginia: Virgil L. Highland: "I believe the people of West Virginia are in favor of the re-nomination and re-election of President Harding. Our people are beginning to realize fully the accomplishments of his administration."

Wyoming: Pat Sullivan: "I am sure that the people of all the Rocky Mountain states feel that it would be unfortunate and deplorable if the people should fail to re-nominate and re-elect one who has accomplished so much, in such a short period of time and brought prosperity and order out of chaos."

Washington: Guy E. Kelly: "The achievements of his administration, the patience and skill with which he has handled the difficult problems bequeathed him, the economies effected in governmental expenses, his great accomplishment in perfecting the four-power peace pact, which so vitally affects the people of the Pacific coast, have won the warm approval of the Republican voters of Washington." BLUE SKY BILL PASSES HOUSE

Third Measure in Road Program is Adopted

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — The house today passed the blue sky bill of Representative Brown of Ross-co, 93 to 2, which materially strengthens the present blue sky laws. The house defeated several days ago the Fouts blue sky bill would have provided for a complete change in the present laws governing this state department.

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — The third bill in the highway program of the legislature was passed by a vote of 70 to 36 in the house today after lengthy squabbling.

The bill creates a county system of highways made up of roads now unimproved for which state aid of not less than $1,000 nor more than $2,000 a township is to be made available.

Counties and townships are to pay not less than $500 a mile each and benefitted property owners are to be assessed 50 per cent of the cost up to $2,000.

Opponents argued that assessments against property owners would be excessive, while it was also argued that the new proposal would make such a drain upon state funds that within a year or two the direct highway levy, abolished at this session, would have to be restored.

Governor Asks Legislature to Act on Recommended Bills

SENATE PROBE SUSPENDED

Statement as to Hotel Expenses Repudiated by Byers

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Governor Donahay late yesterday sent a message to the legislature calling attention to the fact that so far none of the recommendations he had made in his messages shortly after his inauguration, had been enacted into laws. The message was read in the senate, but as the house already had adjourned, it will not be read in that branch until Monday evening.

The chief executive urged specifically that the legislature give special consideration to four measures embodying his recommendation which were introduced by Democratic members. They were re-establishing the old bi-partisan board of administration; reestablishing a bi-partisan board of parole; transfer of the automobile registration department from the secretary of state to the penitentiary and making appropriation for another state operated milk plant.

HOTEL BILL PROBE
Investigation by a senate committee of alleged irregularities in connection with the Marshall hotel bill had been suspended over the weekend today after the committee at yesterday's session had heard W. W. Byers, Cleveland hotel man, repudiate a signed statement to the effect that he had approved a plan to have Ben Sawyer, Cleveland attorney, submit a bill for attorney's fees to the Ohio Hotel Association, the proceeds of which were to be used to pay hotel expenses of Senator Joseph J. Rowe.

The statement, which Byers admitted he signed on March 15, was (Continued On Page Seven)

Bavaria Backs Government in Invasion Opposition

REVOLUTIONARY MOVE NIPPED

Sections of Country Stand Together Against Surrender

BERLIN — (United Press) — Leading members of the alleged revolutionary conspiracy recently broken up by the government were ordered indefinitely detained today while the lesser members were liberated.

Among those held are General Huger and Majors Schroder and Smothlage, Professor Danke, Erdman and Ehrenhorst and Lieutenant Rossbach.

Premier Von Kulling of Bavaria in an interview today declared there was no chance of a revolutionary putsch succeeding against the central government of Germany, so long as Berlin stands fast against the French.

"Bavaria completely agrees with the remainder of Germany," he said. "We oppose capitulation and wouldn't support any central government which advised capitulation. Chancellor Cuno and I are eager for settlement and realize that eventually negotiations must come but neither of us would consent to German humiliation or surrender." "A successful putsch is only possible if any central government acceded to French dictation. Otherwise, the idea of German unity precludes such a putsch idea. More (Continued On Page Seven)

WARRING INDIANS IN LAST STAND

Surrounded by Utah Posse; May be Wiped Out

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah — (Associated Press) — Old Posey, leader of the renegade Pinto Indians has taken what probably will be his last stand in Dry Wash, twenty miles from Blanding, the week's storm center of the Indian troubles of southeastern Utah.

With this veteran of half a dozen former armed clashes with the white settlers are less than a score of trouble-makers, mostly Pintos, but with a few Utes recently joined to the band.

Surrounding the fastness of the Rocky region where the Indians have taken refuge are posse, acting governor of Utah, has indicated that today he would place a reward on the head of Old Posey. But the posse and the settlers who sent them after the Indians need but little impetus to their present determination to force a settlement of the recurring difficulties with the Pintos.

Wapakoneta Fire Department Appealed to For Aid

LOSS ESTIMATED AT $5,000

Relief Train Sent From Lima Over L. E. & W. Railroad

Loss estimated at $5,000 was caused by fire at Buckland, 12 miles west of Lima early Saturday morning, which destroyed the Lak Erie & Western Railroad station, a store owned by J. T. Morris and the residence of W. T. Brocure.

H. T. Clawson, mayor, appealed to Wapakoneta for aid of the fire department there and the L. E. & W. dispatched a relief train from Lima at 3:30 in aid in putting out the fire and clearing up debris.

The fire started, according to reports, about 1 a. m. in Morris' vacant store room and spread to the station and the Brocure residence. Freight and records in the station were saved, officials said. A temporary station has been established. Officials estimated the company's loss at $1,500.

Lake Erie train crews arriving in Lima Saturday morning brought reports of the fire. The flames were stopped about 1 a. m. Communication earlier with Mayor Clawson defined the loss at $5,000.

A wrecking crew from the L. E. & W.'s Lima terminal had not reported at noon on the extent of the damage, but it was said at the office of the superintendent that traffic would not be delayed on account of the fire. The right of way was not blocked, it was said, and the railroad company is prepared to carry on unhindered.

MOVIE COMEDIAN TICKLES LONDON MAN TO DEATH

LONDON — The metaphor "dying of laughter" was translated in fact in the case of the elderly Joseph Chatfield who was so tickled at the drollery of a leading American "movie" comedian that he was unable to control his laughter and suddenly collapsed, dying in the arms of a woman sitting beside him in a cinema theatre here. Physicians said that Chatfield's heart had been ruptured.

SUGAR MEN MAY BE PROSECUTED

Justice Department to Decide Course Next Week

RESULT OF SOARING PRICES

People's Legislative Service Demands Grand Jury Probe

(By WILLIAM J. LUSH)

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — The department of justice early next week is expected to reach a decision as to whether the federal government can prosecute speculators who are charged with gouging the American people out of $15,000,000 a month by boosting sugar prices.

A comprehensive investigation of manipulations on the sugar market during the last six weeks, which have resulted in an increase of about 75 per cent in the price the housewife must pay is being made by the department, according to A. L. Seymour, acting attorney general. In its inquiry the justice department is being assisted by the department of commerce.

FACTS SOUGHT
"The department is interested in determining whether any artificial shortage has been purposely created in the supply of sugar shipped to the markets of the United States and whether any other arbitrary interference is affecting the price," Seymour said.

Pending the result of the inquiries by the departments of justice and commerce, no investigation will be made by the federal trade commission.

3 STATES HARD HIT BY FLOOD

Iowa, South Dakota and Nebraska Cities Inundated

SITUATION GROWING WORSE

Ten Counties Menaced in Flow From Ice Gorge

OMAHA, Neb. — (Associated Press) — Unprecedented mammoth ice gorges in the Missouri river and tributary streams near Vermillion, South Dakota, Sioux City and Omaha, Iowa, and Dakota City, Neb., today have precipitated conditions which present a flood menace for all lowlands between Vermillion and Omaha, the flooding of thousands of acres of rich farmlands in the three states, destruction of hundreds of farm homes and at least the partial inundation of Sioux City and several lower cities and towns.

More than 400 homes in the bottom lands of Sioux City were untenable today and a two-foot rise in the waters of Floyd river, backing up from the Missouri river, would, according to police, inundate an additional forty residential blocks.

An ice gorge reported to have attained a length of eleven miles and a width in places of seven miles near Sergeant, Buff, is strangulating the Missouri river.

2,000 FARMS MENACED
A decided drop in temperature this morning helped the ice mass retain its hold. But at any moment it may give way and then the dammed up waters would surge down the valley. A conservative Sioux City estimate placed the number of farms in the path of such a water wall at two thousand.

Ten counties of South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska would bear the brunt of the onslaught. Late last night an ice gorge (Continued On Page Seven)

DANGER SEEN IN SUGAR BOOST

Liable to Bring Drastic Action by People, Forbes Says

PUBLIC SENTIMENT DEFIED

Refiner is Quoted to Show Unwarranted Action

(BY B. C. FORBES)
NEW YORK — (Special) — Well, how do you like ten cents and twelve cents a pound sugar?

Tiffany can charge $5,000 for a ring and nobody need worry. The public don't care whether the Holla-Royce people charge $15,000 or $20,000 for one of their cars. I am sure they can charge a king's ransom for hotel accommodations without incurring any popular resentment.

But when it comes to sugar, every housewife and every breadwinner in the land is affected, and is, therefore, interested.

Did you notice that the British parliament, for the first time in its history, has been obliged to discuss a motion, proposed by a member, that the present form of government there be done away with and Socialism established?

What has that got to do with the price of sugar?

Let a few more industries arouse the indignation of the American public as this iniquitous film-flaming in the sugar industry is arousing their indignation, and Washington will have to face, and face seriously, a similar demand.

The price you and I are now being compelled to pay for sugar is an outrage. It is not warranted by conditions. It has been engineered by conscienceless speculators.

It is unfortunate that the Department of Commerce started or at least, fanned the scandalous ongoings by issuing a sensational statement which was immediately interpreted as forecasting an acute scarcity of sugar.

I'm no Socialist. But I have ceased to have any patience with such fleecing of the public as has been perpetrated by coal profiteers and powerful sugar gamblers. The most arrogant and dictatorial labor union has never been guilty of any more flagrant defiance of decent public sentiment.

Is this wild, unwarranted talk? Don't answer until you have read what follows, written not by me, but by a man who has spent his whole life in the sugar refining business and who is today head of one of the large sugar companies.

Clara A. Spreckels, chairman of the Federal Sugar Refining Company. Here is what I obtained yesterday from Mr. Spreckels for readers of this column:

"The sugar industry cannot justify to the consumer the present prices of sugar. It can explain it cannot excuse it.

"The speculation and the cause of the rise are facts, but not justifiable ones. The Department of Commerce's statement, which because of its wording was naturally interpreted to predict a shortage of 725,000 tons of sugar this year, caused exactly the wrong time for the consumer and for the industry. The Department's figures are open to serious question by those men in the sugar industry who are in a better position to know the vital statistics of the industry.

"There will not be a shortage this year. On the contrary, if the industry allows the present speculation to continue, there will be a substantial hoard at the end of the year.

"The Department of Commerce statement on February 12, and the resulting rise in prices threatens to change the whole industry this year. The first three months of the year are usually the dull, the causing and pressing demand not starting until later. By predicting shortages, boosting prices and encouraging a runaway market, sales of sugar are increased. The shortsighted think they are increasing the consumption of sugar, but they are merely pulling the seasonal peak forward, and when they come to the season of expected high demand they will find themselves in a slump. The laws of supply and demand cannot be violated in this way. "You can hasten distribution but you cannot increase consumption by increasing prices.

"Speaking as a refiner and leaving aside all questions of the public good, I feel that the exhibition of the past month reflects seriously on the sugar industry and holds possibilities of grave danger in the future. Present operations, are, of course, profitable—a bull market always is. But the refining trade does not want to sacrifice its future to present profit. High prices now will not only derange the trade for the rest of the year but will stimulate production all over the world and will thus tend to unsettle the industry next year.

"Another vital factor to which the industry seems to be dangerously blind is the good will of the public.

"Once the public discovers that the sugar industry is dominated by speculators at one time, it will be impossible to justify its sugar price at any time, whatever the conditions.

"An unbiased government investigation of the present rise in prices is necessary and should be demanded by the people so that those factors in the industry which have not been responsible should not be branded along with those who have.

To this I would add only a reminder to the sugar people that, if the American public becomes sufficiently incensed, they will find ways and means—perhaps none too gentle—of bringing them up with a sharp turn.

EX-SOLDIER MAKES TWO UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPTS AT SUICIDE IN ONE HOUR

Two unsuccessful attempts at suicide were made in his cell in city prison at Kenton by Lloyd Madory, 27, World War veteran, arrested Thursday night on a charge of disorderly conduct and intoxication. Both attempts were by hanging from the top of the cell by means of underwear which he had stripped from his body. Madory was nearly dead when discovered, but revived under a physician's care. FOSTER MAY TESTIFY IN HIS OWN DEFENSE

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. — William Z. Foster probably will take the witness stand in his trial here in an effort to clear himself of charges of violation of the Michigan syndicalist law.

Decision to introduce the testimony of Foster and his associates, was reached when Judge Charles White ordered important testimony in defense depositions taken out of the records.

Charles E. Ruthenberg, indicted with Foster, following the communist convention at Bridgeport, was the first defense witness. He said the communist party had given up advocacy of violence and use of armed force in bringing about a political and industrial revolution in America at least five months before the Bridgeport convention. Since the meeting Ruthenberg said, the communist party of America has passed out of existence and has been replaced by the workers' party.

Nation-wide Hunt, Started Weeks Ago Proves Unsuccessful

VICKSBURG, Miss. — (Special) — A woman with bobbed reddish locks, her coat collar turned up high to conceal her features, not long ago boarded a train here and headed north for an unknown destination.

She carried in her arms a three-month-old baby. As she fled, she looked furtively behind her as if fearing pursuit. To those on the train who took a kindly interest in the child she gave suspicious glances and silence.

The woman, according to charges made to the police here, was a kidnapper. She was leaving in her wake the broken hearts of a mother and father and a disrupted home and disillusionment for her own husband. This woman—she is 30, five feet six inches tall and of sallow complexion—is the central figure in the most unusual true story of love, motherhood and human hearts ever known in this region.

The story. Mrs. R. C. Graham, Cybur, Miss., gave birth to the child in a hospital at Natchez, Miss. Her husband, whose business as a saw-miller man required his almost continual absence from home, at the time was in California.

The mother became seriously ill. Hospital attendants told her she could not leave the institution for many weeks.

Time dragged. Mrs. Graham had no friends in Natchez. So no visitors came. Finally came one. A friendship developed. Her visits became more frequent.

The visitor called herself Mrs. Gibson. She said she lived in Vicksburg and her husband owned a plantation.

"Why don't you let me take your baby home with me?" the new friend finally asked. "I'll care for her until your husband returns and you are well."

The mother was reluctant. Then she decided, mother-like, to consider, self first and let the baby go where it could have better care.

Days rolled on and Graham came back from California, eager to gaze for the first time at his first born.

With his wife, now recovered, he went to Vicksburg to obtain the child.

But no Mrs. Gibson could be found.

The police were called on. They were powerless. Private detectives were hired. Advertisements were inserted in newspapers.

After a week of disappointment a new lead the parents to Gary, Miss. There they found the woman who had taken away the baby.

She was, according to a complaint filed with the police, Mrs. T. M. Jenkins, wife of a logging man.

Mrs. Jenkins explained, according to the Jenkins, that she had taken the child that she might tell her husband it was her own, born while he was absent.

She refused to yield the child until Mr. and Mrs. Graham would go to the husband and explain the deception. They rushed to Vicksburg and secured a writ of habeas corpus.

But when they returned—The woman was gone and, with her, the baby.

So a nation-wide search was started. The parents are distracted. They are being aided by Jenkins, husband of the alleged kidnaper.

Jenkins declares he believes his wife took the baby not because she wished an infant to love but because she believed the possession of a child might haunt him in his intention to secure a divorce.

RAIN OR SNOW PROMISES FAIL

So long as the sun shines, there's little complaint heard about the state of the weather. Hence, the forecast of fair tonight and Sunday and colder tonight, is accepted philosophically by most everyone.

Believers in the woodchuck as a weather forecaster feel that the little animal has rather overdone the situation and that he is piling it on long after his period of supernatural activity was supposed to come to a close.

Two successive forecasts of rain or snow, affecting Friday and Saturday, failed to materialize, while Old Sol continued in a determined manner. However, as you'll have to view it, there's no telling when a change may come. It's always good judgment to hope for the best, however, and refuse to see the possibility of the worst.

Altho frogs have already been heard croaking at night several times during the past week they have been driven back to winter quarters temporarily by intermittent freezes. Jack Frost too is making belated visits.

"MARGIE" COMING TO ORPHEUM

"Margie," the sensational musical show, a combination of reviews, follies and frolics all rolled into one tremendous avalanche of fun, which will be the attraction at the New Orpheum Theater next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, is the most distinctive song and dance show of the entire music world. It is a collection of jingling mirth, tinkling song and a tornado of jazzing.

It is a creation of American brains. Neither English, nor French, nor German, nor Austrian ideas were used in either staging, scenery, or costumes. The production was made under the personal direction of Edwin McGregor, managing director of the McGregor Company, Inc., owner of the big show. It is said that an entirely new note has been struck in the designing of the scenery and the costumes, thereby reflecting great credit on Mr. McGregor.

The production comes here intact and should prove one of the big successes of the season. There will only be two shows daily at 2:30 and 8:15 with the exception of Saturday when three shows will be given to accommodate everyone.

MRS. MINOR E. CROSSLEY DIES OF COMPLICATIONS

Mrs. Rachel E. Crossley, 62, wife of Minor E. Crossley, died Saturday morning at her home in the Majestic-apts. Main and Kibby-sts, following an illness of one year from a complication of diseases. She had made her home in Allen-co all her life.

In addition to the husband, she is survived by one son, Clifford Crossley of Lima; two sisters, Mrs. Richard Ward, W. Kibby-st and Mrs. William Ashton, S. Main-st.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 10 a. m. at Grace M. E. church, Rev. D. N. Kelly, officiating. Interment in Woodlawn.

The Young Mother.

THE ILLS OF INFANTS AND CHILDREN should be well known to the youngest of mothers that a reminder or a repetition of the symptoms of ill, seem unnecessary, yet there are some mothers who overlook a feverish condition, a little colic, or a disposition to be irritable. If not corrected they may lead to serious sickness. And to correct them, to bring Baby back to its happy self, is so easy by the use of Castoria—medicine prepared just for infants and children. It will regulate the bowels (not force them), aid digestion and so bring quiet and rest.

Fletcher's Castoria has been doing this for over 30 years; regulating the stomach and bowels of infants and children. It has replaced the nauseating Castor Oil, so-called Soothing Syrup, poisonous Paregoric and other vicious concoctions in the homes of true and honest mothers—mothers who love their children.

Those mothers will give their babies foods and medicines especially prepared for infants and children.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher

LETTERS FIGURE IN COURT CASE

Cleves Divorce Suit Continued—Mrs. Basinger Gets Decree

Letters from a college boy in the far west were exhibited as testimony in the trial of a divorce action Saturday, brought by Victor Cleves, railroad section hand, N. Jefferson-st., against Opal Cleves, of Findlay.

The love missives were purported to show that the wife and the college boy had had enjoyable times together. Other witnesses told of seeing the plaintiff at Van Wert with two other women and three men.

The Cleves were married at Findlay. Cleves told the court his spouse had left him on three occasions, the last time being three months ago.

He accused her of contracting debts for clothing that he could not pay. His suspicions were first aroused, he said, when he followed her one night and saw her meet a stranger near a lonely bridge in Findlay. Cleves said he spoke to the two, and that his wife was frightened and promised to mend her ways.

Because he believed evidence was insufficient, Judge Becker continued the case.

Mrs. Odessa Basinger, Richmond, obtained a decree from Ambrose Basinger, on testimony showing he had neglected to provide food and clothing for her.

Under terms of the decree granted by Judge Becker, Basinger will receive $100 a month for her support and maintenance.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart:
I AM a young man of 20, but disgusted with girls in general. My hair is rather thin and people say, "Aw, he's bald." I suppose that is why the girls do not care for my company and I hurt me to think of this. I don't see other fellows with their slicked-back hair.

AREN'T there any nice-looking girls who would care for a fellow like me? I go with a girl two or three times and then she begins to tell me about the other fellows she goes with, who take her for automobile rides and to dances. I have no machine and am not a good jazz stepper.

What is your advice?
YOUR LETTER shows that you are difficultly has little or nothing to do with your hair, or lack of hair.

You complain because you feel that girls are too much influenced by a young man's appearance, then in the very next sentence you intimate that you are looking for a "nice-looking girl." Apparently, you are too much interested in a girl's looks. Character and personality are much more important. If you have these and if you are well groomed, you don't need a handsome face and slick hair in order to be popular.

Why not learn to dance? Or, if you do not think you would care to dance, seek the company with girls who do not dance? There are many girls who do not dance and who do not insist that a man drive his own car.

Dear Susie:
I love my husband dearly, but he does not trust me. This hurts me terribly. Before we were engaged, I went with other men. He didn't want me to do this and because I went with others then, he thinks I might do the same now. He still quarrels with me about things that happened before I promised to marry him. Is it fair for him to act so?

No, this is not fair. You were entirely within your rights in accepting invitations from other men before you became engaged to your husband.

Dear Miss Smart:
I am 32 years of age and am a daily reader of your column. I have a good income, a fair education and good habits and have met everything a man would want. I have kept company with several girls, but none of them seem to suit me. In reading thru your column on Sunday, March 18th, I find one signed M. K. Now my problem is just like hers. She was wondering if there are any decent girls in the world and I am thinking just the other way. There were any decent girls. Is there any way I can meet this girl or one like her? Can you help me?

I have printed your letter and if M. K. wishes to meet you, she will no doubt send me her name and address. I had another request for her real name. Thursday, so evidently she is going to be pretty popular from now on. Your question as to whether there are any decent women is rather impertinent. Of course there are, many of them.

Don't forget the meeting of the Friendly club Friday evening. There are some real people who belong to this club and if you want to make friends, these are the kind of people you should meet. Call Main 6949 if you want to know where the club meets.

The Best Medicine For Women

When Mr. Myers of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, stepped into the drug store and asked his druggist for the best medicine he had in his store for women's ills, is it any wonder he was handed a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Mrs. L. K. Myers in writing of it says: "I had been weak, run down and had a pain in my left side for a long time, so I could not do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me in a short time so I was able to do my housework including washing and ironing, and now I feel fine all the time." As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for benefiting 98 women out of every 100 women who take it, it will pay every suffering woman to try it.

Photographs of fingerprints left by marauders who hammered off the combination of a large vault were taken to Delphos Thursday at 3 p. m. by Sheriff Harvey Closson, County Detective Roy Bowersock and Willis Kipker, chief of detectives of the Lima police force.

Three Delphos young men, suspected of the attempted robbery, were taken into custody and their fingerprints recorded by the Lima officers.

The thumb and fingers of each hand were taken separately, then, the fingers grouped. This plan conformed to the manner in which the prints were left at the office of the lumber plant.

The records were taken to Lima by the officers for investigation. The suspects were released on their own recognizance. All three have been in police toils before. One served time in a penal institution. They have been employed lately, according to police.

Well-defined fingerprints were left by would-be thieves on a window frame, the vault and a table. Those on the latter fixture were the best. Entrance was gained by raising a toilet room window.

Office of the Horine Lumber company, S. Clay-st., was entered the same night. Nothing of value was stolen at either place.

DONATIONS FOR DELPHOS COMMUNITY FAIR EXCEED SANGUINE EXPECTATIONS

Good things to eat will not be lacking at the Delphos community fair, April 18 and 19, judging from the numerous donations reported Thursday night at a meeting of the women's committees canvassing the city for donations.

A total of 140 cakes, 70 pies, 70 dozen eggs was reported. One hundred or more articles of fancy work and apparel and $125 in cash is also assured. Sufficient material has been pledged by women of the city to stock some of the booths which will be erected in St. John's auditorium.

Committees have not completed work of canvassing. Much more material is expected to be added.

Such was the success of the women's drive that Dr. D. J. Clark, president of the Kiwanis club, which is fostering the park project, made the prediction Friday the fair will go over with a bang.

WILL IMPROVE UNPAVED STREETS IN DELPHOS

Work on repair of Delphos unpaved streets may begin next week. Service Director Ed Spellman has begun to collect machinery and tools with which to re-surface the thoroughfares.

A grader will be borrowed either from Allen-co or Marion-ty and two men will be employed to operate it. Considerable difficulty is being experienced by Spellman in lining up machinery because of the fact that it is almost always engaged when he seeks its use. He deprecates the city's lack of this equipment.

DRESSING ROOM PLANS READY

Approval Given of Delphos City Park Improvement

Construction of a battery of dressing rooms at the swimming pool recently completed at the new Delphos city park became a certainty Thursday night when a committee from the Knights of Columbus, who will make the donation, approved plans at a joint meeting with the Kiwanis park committee.

Work will probably be started as soon as cost of the structure is estimated, according to the K. of C. committee, H. A. Kehres, Joseph Welsgerber and Barney Von Lehmden.

The structure will be about 14 feet wide and 75 feet long. There will be two general dressing rooms, one for girls and one for boys. A 12 private dressing rooms each for men and women.

Between the men's and women's sections will be a checking and concession room, built in "T" shape 11 feet wide and 22 feet long. This room will extend eight feet from the main structure to afford picnicers an opportunity to check picnic baskets and other articles.

A porch ten feet wide will extend almost the entire length of the building. Frame construction has been decided upon, but only the best of material will be used, the K. of C. committee assured.

The structure will be erected in close proximity to the swimming pool.

Plans will be on display at the community fair to be given April 18 and 19 for benefit of the fair.

Police Joker "Finds" Rum In Man's Pocket

Queer little tremors chased up and down the spine of Thomas Cook, Delphos resident, Thursday night, when "Punch" Humphreys, patrolman, hauled a suspicious looking bottle from his overcoat pocket at City Hall.

The bottle was of quart size, half full of an amber liquid.

"Humph, this looks bad, Tom," said Humphreys.

With wide-staring eyes Cook watched him pass it around under the noses of some of the lounging gentry. It bore the odor of double-distilled whiskey.

But Cook's fears were set at rest when it was explained that "Punch" had partly filled the bottle with water and colored the contents with coffee at a nearby restaurant, then slipped it into the overcoat pocket of the unsuspecting Cook. The bottle originally contained hooch, hence the fragrance of the contents was real.

BEST EVERS WIN FROM LIMA

While Stars Worsted at Delphos After Three Victories

Revenge is sweet, especially when you have to wait long for it. The Best Evers, Delphos St. John's sophomore cage squad, tasted the bitter drops of defeat three times this season before they were able Thursday night in Delphos to wallop the Lima White Stars. The score was 25 to 11.

The Best Evers were aided by the Lim brothers in polishing off the Lima team. Assistance of the varsity players counted greatly. Out of the four games played before between the two teams, St. John's was able to gain but one tie.

Shenk was the star of the fray and incidentally pointed out to the critics that he is good timber for next year's five. He made 13 of the Best Evers' points.

Schmidt and Hart also loom as prospects for the 1923-24 quintet, along with two regulars of this season, Bob and Leon Lim, and two substitutes, Ricker and Illett.

Preceding the main affair a St. John's sophomore team walloped Delphos high school 1 second-year men 24 to 16. Ricker and Leon Lim were in the St. John's lineup. Lineups and score of the final DELPHOS.....LIMA

PLAN TERMINALS FOR BUSES

Board of Commerce to Make Survey of Local Situation

A general survey of the automobile bus situation will be made by the Board of Commerce and recommendations, including one covering a central terminal for all bus operators, will be made to the city commission, J. E. Morton, manager, announced Friday, after a conference with City Manager C. A. Bingham.

"The whole purpose of the project," Morton said, "is to avoid confusion resulting from the present situation. Each operator chooses his own parking place, and he changes it nearly every day because someone else is parked in his place. Passengers have great difficulty in finding their buses and also in learning bus schedules."

"The Board of Commerce would like to improve bus transportation facilities as much as possible, for the benefit of the public interest," he added.

A central parking station or terminal will probably be recommended in the public square, Morton said, probably near the Lima House, on E. Market-st.

The city will cooperate to the fullest extent, it was said at city hall. An effort has been made four times within a year to provide an ordinance for licensing and regulating busses, it was said. Without such an ordinance, officials say, the city is somewhat hampered in furthering the plans of the Board of Commerce.

Morton will present the proposal to bus operators and ask their suggestions and aid in forming plans for the terminal.

"SHEIK" TELLS OF WILD PARTIES

Adds Details of His Crime Career in Grilling

JAZZ ARTIST REMINISCENT

Booze Flowed Like Water in Events He Attended

A disheveled "sheik" his clothing tattered and torn, added new points to the story of his crime career Saturday, when Virgil Dackin, 19, jazz pianist, was cross-examined by prosecuting Attorney Eugene T. Lippincott, at the county jail office.

"He's either a mighty clever youth," declared Lippincott, "or just a foolhardy smart aleck."

Lippincott went over the boy's movements from the time he declared he was deserted by Mack Oriole, jazz orchestra manager, in a Detroit tavern.

Prior to the event, the two drank some wine, he declared. The two were to meet other jazz-smitten youths in Detroit and proceed to St. Louis to fill an engagement at the Philadelphia hotel in that city.

On his arrival in Detroit, Dackin told the officers he paid his employer $50. He understood that the money was to pay his initiation fee into the musician's union. Some sort of an application was filled out and retained by Oriole, the boy said, but no receipt was given him.

Dackin seemed to have a very hazy idea of the proceedings.

HE TRUSTED ORIOLE

"He said it cost me $50 to join," Dackin stated, "and that was all right. I trusted him."

Hotel directories fail to list any St. Louis hotels called the Philadelphia. Virgil stated that the hotel was where he was going to play, however.

Dackin is unable to explain why it was necessary for him to join the union to play on the road. He is not old enough to be a member, but had played with organized musical bodies around Toledo, on a permit, he said. He paid dues, but no initiation fee.

While playing in Toledo dance orchestras, Dackin said he had been in many wild parties, where liquor ran free as water.

"I saw some wild times," he said, "one reason I wanted to get on the road was to see more life."

360,000 COMPANY FORMED HERE WILL OPERATE SAND BUSINESS IN INDIANA

Cliff M. Wood, of the Cliff Wood Coal & Supply company, president of the Pleasant Lake Sand & Gravel company, incorporated Saturday at Columbus with a capital stock of $60,000, will leave Saturday night to supervise the beginning of work at the company's plant near Pleasant Lake, Ind.

Other incorporators, all of Lima, are Fred I. Hammer, Dan Tripphorn, Nella Wood and Homer N. Wood.

The company was organized to operate the plant bought from Leonard Bros. of Pleasant Lake, Ind. The property comprises 200 acres, with more than 25 million yards of sand and gravel. Full equipment, including dredging barges and washing machinery, with a capacity of 50 carloads a day, has been installed at the plant, Wood said.

The property is located at the edge of the town of Pleasant Lake, in northwestern Indiana, on the New York Central Railroad.

"Our location enables us to cover Ohio, Indiana and Michigan," Wood said. "We are prepared to ship to all points within a radius of 100 miles, operating over sections of the three states."

The plant, which employs between 15 and 20 men, will be in full operation by April 1, Wood said.

Formal organization of the company will be accomplished at the first stockholders' meeting, to be held in Lima late next week.

PIGGY WIGGLY IS NOW PRICELESS

No Offers of Any Kind to Make, Saunders Declares

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — (Associated Press) — Shares of class A, Piggy Wiggle common stock held by Clarence Saunders, president of Piggly Wiggle Stores, Inc., and badly wanted by "short" sellers who were caught in the jam Tuesday when a bear raid on the stock was repelled, were priceless today.

Of this stock which yesterday Piggly Wiggle head quoted as "shorts" at $100 per share, Thursday at $150, until three o'clock in the afternoon and for a time thereafter at $250, Mr. Saunders declared in a statement, uttering "refusal" to sell the stock.

"I have no price of any kind to offer to any further short interests. Even $1,000 a share would not buy from me a single certificate for a 'short'." Mr. Saunders declared.

Mr. Saunders denounced "Wall Street" and its "tactics" bitterly and declared he expected to enter suit against the New York stock exchange which he characterized as "all legalizations in America, the worst menace in all its power to ruin all who dare oppose it."

"Wall Street got hooked bad," Mr. Saunders continued, "and then called for 'margin.' Of course 'margin' the New York stock exchange, heard the cry of its petted child."

Out of approximately 25,000 shares which Mr. Saunders said were due him, just one hundred and forty were delivered to him yesterday.

Mr. Saunders said he would hereafter dispose of his stock by selling "direct to the people—they trust me, but they don't trust Wall Street. It would not allow the stock to be sold in the curb market," he insisted.

"I am not afraid. Let Wall Street get me if they can. It is because most people are afraid that nothing is done about this kind of business."

SENIOR CLASS PLAY IS PRESENTED AT CENTRAL

"Just Like Judy," Central high senior class play, given at the school auditorium Friday evening, brought together a large audience.

The title role was well presented by Miss Beatrice Roeder, who delighted the audience with her vivacious manners. Robert Dew, who played the part of Peter Kippie, opposite Miss Roeder, shared with her the honors of the evening.

Sheldon Ackerman, who portrayed Peter's chum, Jimmy Draycott, did excellent work, while the part of the "flippant flapper" was cleverly done by Miss Marjorie Green.

Each of the following members of the cast, helped make the play one of the best given at the high school: Eugene Reed, Russell Mericle, Catherine Moore, Eleanor Trout and Jeanette Stuart.

Directors of the play were Misses Helen Craig and Virginia Warner, members of the high school faculty.

ROYAL RECEPTION IS AWAITING HARDINGS

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. — Dressed in her most gala attire, this ancient Spanish built city today was prepared to welcome two of her old winter residents, President and Mrs. Harding.

The president's arrival here today was to mark the nineteenth consecutive year in which he and Mrs. Harding have visited St. Augustine. Years ago, before Mr. Harding had attained the rank of state official or senator, he began coming here for a few weeks each winter or spring, as the editor of the Marion Star. In those early days the coming of the Hardings was of little moment and occasionally their annual sojourn was omitted from newspaper mention or casually mentioned along with other visitors at the hotels. This city today, however, had planned for them a royal reception.

The arrival here, expected this afternoon, marks the end of the houseboat cruise.

What Is Flame Of Life? Tell, Win Cash

The Lima News' "What Is the Flame of Life?" contest opened yesterday with the formal announcement and is now well under way.

Altho this unique contest is only one day old, the contest editor already has many answers, which proves that the race for the prizes will be a keen one.

The "What Is the Flame of Life?" contest was suggested by the appearance here next Wednesday, of Priscilla Dean's latest and greatest photograph, "The Flame of Life," which plays a four day engagement at the Lyric theatre.

When this title was suggested for Alex. Dean's latest photograph, the producer had in mind some wonderful quality in the picture which is best expressed by the phrase, "The Flame of Life."

Intrinsic in its meaning and application, this title can be chased along several different channels of thought. Love, sacrifice, duty, sweetest, all of these or a combination of them may be essential to "The Flame of Life." In fact the phrase is intangible, meaningless in one sense and yet holding a depth of feeling, the boundaries of which are unlimited.

The prizes offered by The News for the best answers to this query are:

1—$1 for each of the four best answers printed in Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evening's paper. One free admission for each of the five next best answers received daily during the contest.

2—$10 for the best answer received during the entire contest. The winning answer to be picked from the solutions published each day.

3—$5 for the second best answer published during the contest. The contest is open to all readers of The News and the rules are:

1—All answers must be limited to 25 words or less.

2—Each contestant may send in as many answers as he or she wishes but each answer must be on a separate sheet of paper with the writer's name and address at the top. Send all answers to the contest editor at The News.

3—Employees of The News and the Lyric theatre are not eligible to compete.

4—This contest will close next Thursday night at 12 o'clock at which time all answers must be in the hands of the contest editor.

In order to qualify for the daily prizes, as well as the grand prizes, contestants are urged to send in their answers as quickly as possible, as the first list of winners will be published in Tuesday's paper.

NUDE GIRLS MUST STAND STILL

Indecent if They Move or Talk Managers Decide

(BY WEBB MILLER)

PARIS — (United Press) — Music hall managers met today to debate the interesting topic:

"When is a nude indecent?"

The answer is:

"When she moves or talks."

The nudity question was brought to a crisis by recent events on the Parisian stage and by the artists' hall two weeks ago, at which some of the models fox-trotted all night clad only in slippers.

Fearing that such episodes would start a deplorable gossip about Parisian life, the music hall managers got together to agree on some form of self regulation.

DECISION REACHED

They decided they must reach an understanding on how much stage nakedness should be permitted, what constitutes indecency and what kind of nudity is aesthetic.

After due consideration they agreed that if the nudes remained posed "immobile" and refrain from talking and singing—then they are aesthetic and artistic.

An order was issued that hereafter when girls appear behind the footlights in their birthday suits, they must stand like statues.

Ministry of interior officials declared they did not intend to hand down a formal ruling on how much nudity is legal, but that they would prosecute each case on its respective merits.

SPIRIT OF WOMAN PHOTOGRAPHED

Test is Made Following Death at Los Angeles

REQUESTED BY DEPARTED

Spiritualist Pastor Tells Time to Expect Her Return

LOS ANGELES — (Associated Press) — Three photographic plates exposed with the lens of the camera encompassing a view of the casket containing the body of Mrs. Mary Fairfield McVicker, associated pastor of the Central Spiritual church, against a background of green velvet showed "evidence of a spirit form," according to C. H. Monroe, a commercial photographer, employed for the test, and Mrs. McVicker's co-religionists who saw development of the plates. One plate was spoiled in developing.

Mrs. Mary C. Visek, pastor of the Central Spiritual church, stated that she had seen Mrs. McVicker's spirit hovering over her friends at the funeral late yesterday when the photographic test to determine whether Mrs. McVicker would be able to return to earthly life was made.

Monroe refused to comment further than to say that he could not understand the appearance of "distinct impressions" on the plates and printing from them today would further enlighten.

The attempt at photographing her spirit was made as suggested by Mrs. McVicker. Two weeks before she died the spiritualist arranged for her funeral and directed that at 6 p. m. the effort to record her spirit's return to earthly life be made.

"Queen" Mary, according to testimony of Mrs. Esther Hunsel, chief witness in the damage suit, brought by John W. Hunsel, often made threats of violence against girls of the colony.

Mrs. Hunsel testified her brother wrote her he "had overheard Queen Mary say she would stick a knife in me."

MRS. HINCKLEY NERVOUS WRECK

Tells Women How She Was Restored to Perfect Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Memphis, Tenn. — "Two years ago I was completely run-down and my nerves were a wreck. I could not sleep a room without resting. I could not do my work except a little at a time, and the doctor's medicine did not help me. One day some one threw your little book on to my porch, and in it I read several testimonials of women who had benefited myself."

I went right out and got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and before I had taken the whole of that bottle I knew it was helping me. I took six bottles, and then in about three months I took two more. Now I am in perfect health. I do all of my own work and could do more. I can truly say that I know Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound gave me my health."

"MR. MARSHALL" QUIZZED IN KING DEATH PROBE

NEW YORK — Assistant District Attorney Pecora today called the mysterious "Mr. Marshall" and "Mrs. Wilson" to his office, to tell what they know about the death of Dorothy Keenan, "Butterfly of Broadway."

The authorities are working on the theory that a plot existed to blackmail "Marshall," whose real name has never been revealed, and who is reputed to be a millionaire. The Keenan girl was to have been used by the plotters, but according to this theory, she refused to play her part. Thereupon the blackmailers chloroformed her.

"Marshall" and "Wilson" are the last men known to have seen the "Butterfly" alive. They appeared before Pecora a few days ago and cleared themselves of suspicion.

WHY THE RUSH?

THE speed mania, characteristic of our generation, is getting worse. Auto drivers are harder to curb. People are bolting their meals faster. Our obsessed nation rushes to work, then rushes work so it can rush away. It rushes dinner so it can rush to the movies. The picture over, it stampedes to be first out.

Look at the auto driver in this pen-picture by Artist Satterfield:

The motorist pictured above is a typical American. He's speeding as if he were rushing to a hospital. But that's not his destination. No, he's on his way to work.

Does he like work, Uncle George? He must, to be so eager to get to it.

No, Rollo, he merely has the speed craze. As soon as he parks his car, he'll go to his office, elated at having saved a few minutes by speeding. Then he'll fritter away several hours during the course of the day. Or, no matter how big his hurry, he'll always have time to stop and watch sewer diggers, a fallen horse, a street fight or other important events such as the youth demonstrating shoulder braces in the drugstore window.

Individually and nationally we are hurrying at breakneck speed—and most of the time without any destination except the goal of getting there fast. Accommodatingly they take us to the graveyard in automobile hearses.

And, by our mad nervous rush, we're missing the finest things of life. Also we're putting the brakes on progress. A case in point is aviation. The popularization of airships is being delayed because the air leaders are concentrating on trying to attain a speed of 1000 miles an hour instead of making a safe air machine easily handled and salable at a low price.

BERTON BRADLEY'S DAILY POEM

HERE!

WHEN there's a sudden softness that trembles in the air.
And certain early song-birds are chirping here and there;
When there's a brighter color in arching skies above;
And youth with errant fancy has turned its thoughts to love;
We know, altho tomorrow may be an arctic day,
That winter's grip is broken and spring is on the way.

When fishermen get tackle out, and count their stock of flies,
When golfers polish up their clubs with longing in their eyes,
When there's an end of stove-league dope and baseball scribes begin
To join the training camps down south and send their stories in
Of wondrous Rockies from the bush (who'll last, perhaps, till May)—
Then winter's grip is broken and spring is on the way.

When once again we read the news that Ty Cobb is "through,"
When there's a sneeze on every breeze and microbes grin cachoo;
When overcoats are "sacrificed" at special sales galore,
And suits of lighter weight and hue are seen in every store,
When birds like me sit down to write this vernal sort of lay,
Then winter's grip is broken and spring is on the way!

'ROUND LIMA HOUR BY HOUR

WITH APOLOGIES

BY OH. OH. JACKENRIM.

A Page from The Diary of An Antiquated Reporter: Up betimes, weary and worried. All but foxed last night on two quarts of milk. Trying to gain another ounce in weight. After Couveng failed to produce dividends.

In the pen-pen. Another special assessment proposal. For street cleaning. Seems taxes are only for interest. I'm in favor of passing a special assessment to pay salaries. Making it unanimous. When they sell City Hall, Mayor Brad can move his desk into this sanctum. No rent, no assessment. If General Byas will stop calling this family paper "The Opposition." And as to selling City Hall, sell it, but have a place to go when the Bank buyer moves his money vaults in. A City official and money couldn't bunk under the same roof. And both stay long.

An old gambler, pathetic spectacle. He's looking into the past. With nothing in sight but a well-dressed house in Woodlawn. Tyne says when we worried over an installment collector. Albeit, now, you'll face a dozen. Rather than not drive a Falingo. No wonder it's so hard to make a living keeping grocery. The grocer gets what's left. After the gas, the garage, and the chattel loan banker gets theirs. The man who invents a drop curtain to give the couple in the front seat a chance. Will also make a fortune.

Lunched alone at a fashionable cafe. Saw my first fly. In the soup. Howbeit, the suet was fine. With baked apples and Charlotte Russe for the sweet. There's a heroine. Smiling her best society grin. And her feet hurting like sin. You can't get away with a AA last on a D pedal silhouette.

Out, and put in at a Cocoa Cola den. Two flappers talking about the great banquet they enjoyed with their classmates of South H. And one said she sent Tom back at the door. Coe Father was entertaining the Home Brewers' Club.

Strolled thru the town. The roses now bloom in the Public Square. And the Wisteria wistful. And the Clematis clinging. What a lovely park it is. And to think they wanted to use it for a city debating society, and records storage house. Sh! I was dreaming. And a Checker cab blot me back. That was auto suggestion.

Dined at Ortho's Hotel de Barr, between the Primrose club and a Dazzling Dozen hotel girls, the prettiest things you ever did see. At a table hardly was Dick Stone, the eminent paving contractor, and his charming wife. And strolling from the room was saluted by Gus Holstine, the mercantile genius, his wife newly come from Petrograd in sunny Florida. Starting with a crabmeat cocktail, there was a pullet joint, a delicious combination salad, and a parfait for the sweet. The coffee, just right.

On the avenue stopped for discourse with M'seur Harrison, the talk specialist. On the joys of fishing in the old creek, and the first day in the swimming pool. When it required no Boy Scouts organization to show us how to play. Thence, home, waving to Mack Colt, in his hurryboat. Sat awhile over an English taylor, wherein a country maiden gets stumped on London night club mixtures. But she's going to marry an author, with every indication of old age spent on the farm. So, late to bed.

YOUR SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Prepared for The Lima News by Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson

During the last six months our studies have been drawn from the Gospel of Luke.

They have been focused upon the greatest personality of history. Our lessons were all taken from the work of a scholar and scientist who claims out that he had "traced the course of all things accurately from the first." The beloved physician's motive in writing, what critics have declared to be "the most beautiful book in the world," was to enable a gentle convert to satisfy himself concerning the accuracy of the story which

Isaiah as outlining the program of Christianity claiming that He had been appointed by God to preach good tidings to the poor, release captives, give sight to the blind, set free the bruised and proclaim the Lord's acceptable years. He pointed out that the Lord's rejection was due to the Master's attitude toward the Gentile, citing the grace bestowed upon the Zarephath widow and the healing of the Syrian leper as causes for his old neighbors refusing to accept the Lord Jesus. He is only one who refers to the sending out of the seventy, who were appointed to carry the Gospel everywhere. Seventy was the recognized symbol of the Gentile world as twelve was for the Hebrew nation.

REVIEW: JESUS THE WORLD'S SAVIOR
Devotional Reading, Rev. 7: 8-17. Golden Text—Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.—1 Tim. 1:15.

"He" had heard from the lips of others. The internal evidence of this gospel points to the fact that the compiler was without doubt Luke, who traveled with the Apostle Paul, as his personal physician, through his missionary journeys in Europe. He brought to his work the knowledge of a trained scientist and the attitude of a gentle mind. This has made his biography of Jesus different from that of the other synoptic writers. He aims to present the Master as the Saviour of the world. He traces the genealogy along the line to his human ancestors until it reached "Adam, the Son of God."

LUKE'S MESSAGE
Luke recognizes the relation of the parental life, boyhood and youth to the character and career of Jesus. We owe most of our knowledge of those silent years of our Lord to the companion of Paul who preserved them for the believers of latter ages. He linked up the relationship and ministry of Jesus with that of John the Baptist, whose name he prepared the way for the entrance of Christ as a preacher. Luke is pre-eminently the gospel of humanity. He is the only one that has recorded the first sermon that Jesus delivered in the synagogue at Nazareth, when the Master selected the passage from

Isaiah as outlining the program of Christianity claiming that He had been appointed by God to preach good tidings to the poor, release captives, give sight to the blind, set free the bruised and proclaim the Lord's acceptable years. He pointed out that the Lord's rejection was due to the Master's attitude toward the Gentile, citing the grace bestowed upon the Zarephath widow and the healing of the Syrian leper as causes for his old neighbors refusing to accept the Lord Jesus. He is only one who refers to the sending out of the seventy, who were appointed to carry the Gospel everywhere. Seventy was the recognized symbol of the Gentile world as twelve was for the Hebrew nation.

THE LIBERATING SAVIOR
The breach between the Lord and the Pharisee leaders appeared on the first study of this year, when the Master sought to break the chains that had held them to a formal observance of the Sabbath. Jesus pressed the spiritual significance of the law. The simple fact that the Pharisee refused to honor the Sabbath, as they thought it ought to be observed, invalidated His claim as the Messiah in their eyes. Their rejection grew out of their historical method of interpreting the Scriptures that emphasized the external and formal while Jesus insisted upon the spiritual and inner meaning. Their interpretation would have prevented the healing of diseases on the Sabbath, while the Saviour of the helpless justified His healing of the woman who has been an invalid for eighteen years by insisting that it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.

Another evidence of the Lord's willingness to liberate and heal was seen in His cure of the ten lepers. Luke points out that only the healed Samaritan leper, returning to give thanks, "The grace of gratitude needs cultivation in our own day. We are strong on condemning when we see things in the press, society or church that we do not like but we are very slow in showing our appreciation of the helpfulness, blessings and aid we obtain from the same sources. Let us show our appreciation and approval of all that is good and worthy. We will if we have an ounce of the grace of gratitude, such as Jesus commended in the Samaritan leper.

THE TEACHING SAVIOR
Jesus looked for peace in the world as a teacher. He spoke as never man spoke before—Probably it was in the use of parables that the Lord revealed His greatness as a teacher. Our first seven lessons of the quarter are found only in the gospel of Luke. Probably the most familiar because it shows the spirit of the Father toward the lost is the Parable of the Prodigal Son. It is the best illustration of salvation in the Scriptures. In His famous parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus Jesus pointed out the sting of covetousness and selfishness that exhibited the contrast between the two lives in this world and that to come. The person who refuses to use the wealth, which God has entrusted to his keeping as a steward, when the cry of the poor is heard at his gates, may look for condemnation and punishment because he refuses to heed their plea for help.

His condemnation of the spirit of prayer of the Pharisee, whose petition "fell to the ground," and approval of that of the humble publican, who belonged to the despised class, because it was sincere and sought forgiveness. It encourages all who wish forgiveness of sins to pray with a confidence that God will hear and answer them. Jesus never qualified before the rich man. He knew that in regard to covetousness, as now, no class more responsive to the gospel than the two most neglected, the very rich and the very poor. This parable served to widen the breach between Him and His enemies.

The climax of that difference came in the parable of the fig tree. The parable of the pounds and talents out their false conception of a kingdom. This was a rebuke to them who refused to recognize Him as the Messiah. He openly challenged them in the temple. He declared that He was the spiritual Father of a series of public discussions concerning taxes and giving. He silenced the leaders by His arguments that held them up to the ridicule of the masses. The result was inevitable. They had to find a way to eliminate Christ or be set to one side themselves.

THE SUPERIOR SAVIOR
The opposition, which started when the Master deliberately sought the fellowship with Zachaeus, the notorious publican of Jericho, whose desire to see Jesus resulted in the Master honoring him by inviting Himself to become his guest, so that He could win Zachaeus. The publican gave full proof of his faith. When Jesus refused to set up a political and material sovereignty, altho He recognized that all these would be transformed and profoundly influenced by the spiritual realm that He would erect upon the ruins they could not see it and determined to destroy Him.

The attitude of Jesus toward the outcast, the despised sinner, and the helpless leper demonstrated that the great passion of Christ was to save men. He was willing to pay the cost in the expenditure of mind, muscle and manhood. The cost from the commencement of His earthly life was the cross. In the darkness of Gethsemane he suffered and in His agony prayed for help, also. He should have been physically before He had broken the power of sin. His prayer and power was given Him so that He died in accordance with the predictions of the prophets. He was crucified for our transgressions. He had taught men the message of salvation from their duty to God and others. His message concerning prayer was illustrated by His life. Upon the cross He demonstrated in His prayer and in the three words

FRENCH HATS AND GOWNS BARRED

Not Permitted to Enter Germany Under Berlin Edict

PART OF GENERAL BOYCOTT

Finery Shut Out as Result of Invasion

BERLIN—Frieda and Gretchen are to have no more Paris gowns. There are to be no more smart little hats brought to Germany from the fashionable millinery shops on the Place Vendôme and the Rue de la Paix.

These articles are not permitted to cross the German boundary since the French invasion of the Ruhr, and the leaders of the German fashion industry have instructed their buyers that French models are not to be bought either directly or indirectly.

High prices in France had prevented German firms from buying many models. Consequently the importation of such finery from France had been inconsiderable as compared to pre-war times. But Berlin modelers were slowly resuming their Paris trips and buying limited quantities of late creations, when the Ruhr trouble came along and brought the general boycott against articles made in France.

Baron Drecoll, managing director of one of Berlin's greatest fashion shops, told the correspondent of The Associated Press that this latest prohibition will make little difference to Berlin designers, as they have not relied directly on Paris for their styles since the beginning of the war and have, in a great extent, become creators of their own models.

FRENCH IDEAS ADOPTED
Of course, many of our ideas come from Paris. It is foolish to deny that Paris leads in the creation of modes," declared the Baron. "But Germany has learned to develop Parisian suggestions and adapt them. In many cases they are greatly modified, as Parisian designs are often too extreme for our taste. The prohibition against the importation of French goods will affect modistes and milliners only in two lines, silk and flowers. It is difficult to replace certain French silks and flowers."

Vienna and Berlin have been working together in the development of modes since the beginning of the world war. Because of the low exchange they have been successful in developing a considerable trade for model gowns in the Scandinavian countries, the Balkans and Central Europe. American and French fashion magazines have been the German and Austrian fashion creators. They also send their representatives to the greatest watering-places on the Riviera and have little difficulty in keeping up with the latest French ideas.

In Berlin virtually all French and Belgian nationalities occupying apartments or rooms are being dispossessed. They were barred in January from all hotels. There are about 3,000 French and 1,000 Belgians resident in the city.

In the stores merchants and clerks have no time for Frenchmen and will not knowingly serve them. Women clerks in shops are even more bitter against the French than men, and take great pains to make sure their customers are not their most hated enemies.

Frenchmen are brusquely ordered out of business houses as soon as their nationality becomes known. Cafes and bars refuse to serve them. Barber shops have hung up the sign, "No Frenchmen admitted," and taxicabs turn down everyone with a French accent.

GREGGERSON TO SPEAK

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre At Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.—Adv.

Flapper On Stand Disconcerts Jury, Counsel In Case

Legal points at issue in the trial of a suit brought by the Rhoda Body company against the Herring Motor Car company were forgotten in common place on Thursday when a flapper witness took the stand to testify. Art supplanted law, in the mind and eye of counsel and jury. If long skirts are fashionable, the witness was out of style. Her skirts stopped a long way from the ground. But the witness totally unconscious of the diversion she was creating, testified calmly as to her knowledge of the case.

NEW SCOUT EXECUTIVE WILL BE NAMED SOON

Appointment of a trained leader depends on developments in the campaign.

NEW PLANS MAY BOOST GAS TAX

Two Cent Measure Revived in Ohio Legislature

VOTE DELAYED BY CHANGE

Action Postponed From Today Till Next Tuesday

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — The gasoline excise tax bill, after being considered for parts of two days by the house of representatives, will be taken up again in the house next Tuesday afternoon.

The proposal for a two cent tax was defeated yesterday, whether the tax shall be one cent or two cents yet is unsolved. Should the house finally accept an amendment to reduce the license tax on passenger cars to a flat fee of $5, some members who voted yesterday against the two cent tax with license fees remaining as at present, may support the two cent tax with license fees reduced to $5. It was stated by Representative Robinson of Lawrenceburg today.

AMENDMENT CHANGED
A proposal to reduce the license fees on passenger cars to the flat $5 rate offered by Representative Kinney, Republican, of Medina, was defeated yesterday because it conflicted with the bus and truck tax law previously passed by the house. The Kinney amendment has been revamped, according to Majority Leader Dunn, and now may be inserted in the gasoline tax bill without affecting the bus and motor truck bill.

The house spent some time this morning in discussing the one cent tax, but made no progress. The motion to put the bill over till next Tuesday at 1:45 p. m., was made by its author, Representative Brown of Champaign-co.

SEEKS NEW TRIAL

Seven Men Convicted in Gigantic Liquor Ring

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — (United Press) — Henry Stevenson, counsel for Matthew P. Griffin, former federal secret service chief and six other men who were found guilty by a jury in United States district court on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in a gigantic whisky plot, said today that a new trial would be sought immediately.

The jury decided that Griffin, John Tammey, Herbert H. Simon, Dr. George E. Klier, of New York, Mallen Levy, Louis Levy and Samuel Gottsfeld, conspired to withdraw whisky from warehouses for export to Greece and later substitute water and sell the whisky on the open market at a $5,000,000 profit. Thirteen men were originally indicted in the alleged fraud, but Harold L. Smith, formerly a star athlete at the University of Michigan and Joseph Kleinman, pleaded guilty and turned government witnesses. As no testimony was offered against former Police Lieutenant A. T. Hamilton, John Friederich and Thomas Kane, liquor dealers, Judge McKeehan ordered the jury to return a verdict of not guilty in these three cases.

PAJAMAS MAY BE MURDER CLUE

Man's Belongings to Aid in Solving Dorothy King Slaying

NEW YORK — (United Press) — An umbrella, a pair of pajamas, a pair of gloves and a comb are among the chief clues to the mysterious murder of Dorothy King, it became known today.

All the articles are in the hands of police after being found in the slain girl's apartment. Some of them—the umbrella and gloves—said to be the property of a wealthy admirer, were discovered in places that indicated they had been hastily hidden from view.

Assistant District Attorney Pecora reiterated his assertions clearing the mysterious "Mr. Marshall" from suspicion. Marshall was known as the girl's "angel."

RUSSIA HAS NEW COURT SYSTEM

Revolutionary Tribunals of Country Pass Into History

RED FEATURES RETAINED

Cases Decided by Judge and Two Jurors

MOSCOW.—The revolutionary tribunal which, along with the dreaded "Cheka," were instruments of red terror during the worst period of the Bolshevik revolution, passed into history the other day when a new and permanent court system was inaugurated throughout Russia. While founded upon lines not unlike those of the court systems of some other European countries, the new Russian courts have some particularly communistic features all their own.

The Supreme Court of Russia, which will sit in Moscow, will have three branches. One will be for criminal cases, one for civil, and the other a court of appeal. There will be also district courts to try cases of local importance, and the "Peoples' Courts," corresponding to police magistrates, will operate in each village and city district to try minor offenses.

Peter Stuchka, Lethish lawyer who gained fame as the Bolshevik dictator of Latvia when Riga was in the hands of the communists, has been named as chairman of the Supreme Court. Another Leth, M. Karklin will be his assistant. In the criminal, civil and appeal branches, however, the supreme court judges are mostly men who served in responsible positions on the revolutionary tribunals, all communists tried and true. Jacob Peters, who headed the "Cheka" at Petrograd during the red terror, is one of the judges of the criminal department.

M. Kuvshin, Commissar of Justice, will be chief procurator or attorney general in the new court system, but the active prosecutor will be Vladimir Krylenko, formerly chairman of the revolutionary tribunals.

PECULIAR FEATURE

A peculiar feature of the new system is that a species of "jurors" is introduced. There will be two of them in each case, sitting beside the judge and having full powers to question witnesses and attorneys. They will retire with the judge to decide upon the guilt or innocence of the accused, a majority vote of the three serving to convict or free the prisoner. Panels of these prospective jurors are now being selected throughout Russia. The various trade unions and professional organizations select them from their own numbers, and they must be ready to go into court at any time they are called upon. The Moscow quota of jurors is 4,000. When they sit in trials the jurymen are paid, not by the government, but by their employers, receiving their regular day's wages for the time spent in court.

When the new court system is in full swing, it is expected that most of the lawyers appearing will be men trained in the law courts of the old regime. Professional unions of lawyers are being organized, subject to the approval of the Soviet authorities.

JAKE GROSS, LIMA FLASH, MANHANDLES WILLIE AMES

WINS A TECHNICAL KNOCKOUT

(BY A. C. TRUITT)

Jake Gross, Lima' classy junior lightweight, fighting in the pink of condition, took the measure of the great Willie Ames of Akron, in eight rounds of a scheduled 12 round go, at Memorial hall Friday night.

The end came when Bernie Strapp, manager of the Akron star, scenting a probable knockout, tossed a towel into the arena, acknowledging defeat.

Ames in his corner, battered and bleeding profusely from the mouth and nose, was a beaten man. He had been worsted at every turn in eight rounds of milling.

Gross on the contrary was fresh and as eager as a warhorse to continue the fray.

Ames failed to answer the bell at the start of the seventh round. He claimed one of his left ribs was fractured. Examination made by a physician failed to disclose such an injury.

TECHNICAL KNOCKOUT
Backers of Gross rightly claimed that the fight should have been halted then and the Lima boy awarded the palm on a technical knockout.

The boxing commission, however, ruled to the contrary, and ordered the battle to continue. Manager Earl Smith and his protegee, rather than crab the proceedings, consented.

It was a changed Jake Gross who faced Willie Ames, when the gong tapped for round one. He had a mean left that he kept poking in the Akron terror's map, and a hard smacking right to follow it up.

His defensive work kept Ames at arm's length and clever foot work constantly enabled him to carry the fight on his own terms.

Ames tore in with his usual style in the first stanza, forcing Gross back into his corner, but inflicting no damage. Jake came out smiling and after sparring a moment crashed a right to Willie's middle. Both men eluded and sparred, feeling each other out. Gross' round by a shade.

Jake took the offensive in round two and was never headed from then on. Ames opened a small cut over Jake's right eye in the third, but failed to take the round. Gross' clever milling making him look bad.

Ames started fast in the fourth, but was slowed up by blows to the stomach, which shook him up. Ames hit low as the round closed. Referee Charles Maxwell warned Ames for fouling again just after the fifth round opened.

Round six was another bad one for Ames and he failed to come up for the bell in the seventh. One of his left ribs was troubling him, but physicians declared it was not cracked.

The last two rounds were a rout. Ames ducking, dodging and backing and Gross pursuing and pounding him. Twice Ames went down in the eighth and he went to his corner with blood streaming from his nose. Then the towel was hurled into the ring, ending the fray.

NOT FRACTURED
An X-ray taken of Ames' side after the fight showed a torn ligament, but no fracture. Both boys weighed in at 129 1-2.

Red Young and Hammering Howie pounded each other about the ring for a 10 round draw. Young seemed to have the best defense and kept the battle going on a distant basis. Howie carried the fight largely, but never seemed to bore in enough to battle close in the way he relishes it. Young weighed 147, and Howie 146 1-2.

Tommy Warren scored the lone knockout of the evening when in the second frame of his 6 round go with Tommy Baumgardner, Fort Wayne, he dazed him with an upper-cut and crashed him down with a straight right. Warren hit the mat like a log. He took no further interest in the proceedings until long after he reached his dressing room.

Warren was downed twice in the opener, taking part of the count, but coming up. His ability to come back and K. O. Baumgardner in the second made a big hit with the fans. Warren weighed 194 and the Fort Wayne boy 186.

Young Ferris outpointed Young Harry Greb in the four round preliminary. Both boys fought well, but Ferris gained an early lead when he scored a knockdown with a left to the jaw in the first round.

He Will Help Phillies In Their Uphill Battle

LEE MEADOWS

(BY BILLY EVANS)

LEESEBURG, Fla. — (Special) Pitching is the main hope of every big league manager.

The Phillies, now hoping to finish in sixth place under the direction of Art Fletcher, are handicapped in this respect. They have one sure bet, however, in Lee Meadows veteran spectacular twirler. He may be counted on to win games consistently, a thing Fletcher needs.

TRAINING CAMP NEWS NOTES

SAN ANTONIO — Two runs scored by four successive hits off Jesse Barnes gave the White Sox a 5 to 3 victory over the Giants. O'Connell and Kamm, the high priced California beauties, both failed to hit but Kamm fielded sensationally.

NEW ORLEANS — Babe Ruth smacked two homers out over the right field fence during batting practice of the New York Yanks. His drives were off Carl Mays and Pennock. Pennock was hit on the shoulder by a ball but was not injured.

LAKELAND, Fla. — Summa, a rookie outfielder, drove Tris Speaker in with a run in the ninth inning that gave the Indians a 6 to 5 victory over the Brooklyn Robins. It was the first game the Robins lost to a major league club.

VETERAN, RECRUIT INFIELD, BOSTON'S ACE IN HOLE

ST. PETERSBURG — The Boston Braves have the best collection of infield recruits of any of the major league clubs thus far seen in action by Billy Evans, special sports writer for The Lima News.

While it is possible that none of the rookie infielders will break in to the opening game lineup, still there is a chance that Manager Mitchell may make some changes in the infield situation as a result of the fine showing of several youngsters.

The Boston infield of last year consisted of Boeckel at third, Kopf at short, Ford at second and Holke at first.

The sale of Holke to Philadelphia means that first base is open. Stuffy McInnis will play that position, although before the signing of the former American League star, Fred Henry had shown enough to make it appear as if he would be able to fill in most acceptably.

Ford at second is a certainty. He is a mighty fine ball player. None of the recruits has a chance to get anywhere as far as second base is concerned.

At shortstop the veteran Larry Kopf will have Arthur "Jojo" Conlon, former Harvard captain, as his rival. Conlon is fast and can field. There is no doubt about that. If he can hit, the collegian is sure to make Kopf hustle. Padgett, secured from the Southern League, can play either short or second and looks very promising.

Tony Boeckel at third is a mighty fine ball player when the veteran

Hutchison At Thirty-Nine Is Playing Best Golf Of Career

Is Jack Hutchison, former British open golf champion, due for another big season?

Hutchison is unquestionably one of the most remarkable figures in golfdom. For years he has been one of the ranking players of the country, always in the money. At 39 years of age he is going better than ever and looks to be in for a big year.

Despite the fact that Hutchison weighs only about 145, he hits one of the longest balls of any of the professionals. He accomplishes this by getting his body into the swing. Few players pivot as much as Hutchison when they hit the ball.

Hutchison has just completed a tour of the coast and south in company with the national open champion, Gene Sarazen. On the entire trip Hutchison has outscored the present title holder by a comfortable margin.

On the tour just closed, competing against the best players in the country and on strange courses, Hutchison has not played a round above 75, while his average for the trip has been a trifle over 71.

When it is remembered the two players were traveling almost constantly, getting but little sleep other than on Pullmans, Hutchison's record stands as a remarkable bit of golf, and makes it seem that the colorful "Hutch" is in for a big year.

INTERFERENCE IN FIRPO BUILDUP

(BY HENRY L. FARRELL)

NEW YORK — Notice that the boxing commission may have something to say about the second step in the build-up of Luis Firpo by a match against Captain Bob Roper was served today by William Muldoon, the boss of the supervisors.

Muldoon intimated strongly that if Tex Rickard told him the thing was actually being considered that he would tell Rickard to save time and stop considering it. Roper is considered by the chairman of the boxing commission as no fit object for Senior Firpo to punch. Roper was considered good enough for his usual business but not for this.

Roper was badly beaten in a bout this week in Maine by Jeff Smith, the veteran New Jersey middleweight, who spotted the former army captain 20 pounds. Muldoon no doubt will be asked by Rickard for some suggestions about a man worthy enough to help along in the good work of making a Dempsey-Firpo match safe for South America.

The boss of the commission may suggest Jack Renault, the Canadian, as an opponent. Renault may be considered a little too good, however, several months ago a young colored boy, George Godfrey, a pupil and protegee of Jack Johnson, was being heralded as a great prospect.

Some of the boys said the Dempsey crowd was urging him on to embarrass Harry Wills. Every one took a fancy to his gym work and several of the tin ears said he could hit. No one wanted him until Renault came along and knocked him out.

No chances will be taken on Firpo. He will have to be fed a setup a few more times but the commission wants it a good set-up at least.

MITCHELL MUST CONCENTRATE ON HIS PITCHING STAFF

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — The big problem for Manager Mitchell of the Braves is pitching.

The Boston outfield, composed of Billy Southworth, Ray Powell and Walter Cruise, will more than hold its own in the National League. Of the new outfielders, Barwell and Feltz show promise, so that it looks as if the secondary defense in the outfield would be up to snuff.

Mitchell has two infielders, one entirely of veterans, another made up of recruits. The four rookies have so much ability that the regulars will be stepping all the time to escape being displaced. That is a good condition because it causes the old players to constantly go at top speed.

The catching department will take care of itself, but some pitching must be developed to make Manager Mitchell feels confident that his club will play the game he is banking on.

Mitchell has his veteran staff of Fillingim, Miller, Oeschger, Watson and Marquard. While some of these hurlers are old-timers in a baseball sense, still Mitchell feels they will come thru, provided he can dig up some worthwhile assistance from the recruits.

Rube Marquard is the only southpaw among the veteran pitchers. Mitchell is anxious to get a young left hander able to go the route. He is hopeful he has such a pitcher in Johnny Cooney.

This young man, with 19 wins and only three defeats, fairly burned up the Eastern League last year. A pitcher capable of such a performance certainly, looms up as most promising material. Huihan, a former collegian, secured from the Giants, is another southpaw prospect.

Two right handers of promise are McNamara, the former, Fordham hurler, who looked so good in a Store.

WILLS HAS REGRETS
NEW YORK — Harry Wills is in mourning. The negro fighter lost someone very near and dear to him recently, young person named Lot to Dough.
Harry had a chance to fight

George Godfrey, another negro heavyweight. But he didn't accept the invitation. And he didn't give any reasons why.

And then along came Jack Renault and handed Godfrey a round-trip ticket to Shumland. While now figures he could have done the same in training Godfrey certainly looked good.

SOLUTION OF COAL PROBLEM, PLAN

Ford Admits Purchase of Big Field in Kentucky

USE FUEL TWICE, PROPOSED

Detroit Manufacturer Now Has Vast Holdings

DETROIT — (Associated Press) — Official confirmation today at the offices of Henry Ford at Dearborn that the automobile manufacturer had purchased 120,000 acres of undeveloped coal land in Kentucky, was coupled with the statement that Ford intended to solve the country's coal problems "by using every piece of coal twice."

By purchase of the property, it was officially announced at the Ford offices, Ford comes into possession of a vast tract of Virginia coal lands with a reserve coal supply of 500,000,000 tons. This property, added to other coal lands previously purchased, brings the total number of acres of such land owned by the manufacturer to 165,000.

From these holdings Ford hopes that within a year will come sufficient coal to supply all his factories in every part of the country all the factories and mills manufacturing various products for his own concern as many of the industries in this district aspire to buy coal from him, and have left fuel sufficient to supply a part of the domestic demand of the country.

Ford, it was announced, will ask all industrial users of his coal to install furnaces that will remove only the gas and similar substances leaving a fuel unimpaired for domestic purposes. The coal, after this process, would be sold to heat the homes of hundreds of thousands of workers throughout the country. The fuel remaining after the gas had been taken out would be even more valuable for home heating purposes than it was before, it was explained.

OBTAINS BIG HOLDINGS

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Coal men operating in eastern Kentucky today received official confirmation of reports that Henry Ford had purchased the holdings in Kentucky of the F. S. Peabody Syndicate, of Chicago.

The holdings of the Peabody syndicate in Kentucky embrace approximately 125,000 acres of rich coal and timber lands located in Bell, Harlan, Clay, Perry, Leslie and Letcher-coes, according to Kentucky operators. The property practically is undeveloped and much of it is beyond present railroad facilities. It was pointed out, however, that in practically every instance the tracts are easily accessible to transportation development projects.

The Detroit manufacturer already has gained a firm footing in Kentucky coal fields. In 1919 he purchased the Banner Fork property in Harlan-co, which now has a capacity of sixty cars a day. Recently, he purchased the 30,000 acres property in Pike-co of the Pond Creek Coal Co.

FEDERAL PROBE OF RADICALS REQUESTED

WASHINGTON — A request that the federal government "commence prosecutions" against William Z. Foster and eleven other alleged "radicals" and investigate the acts of Frank P. Walsh and others declared to have been associated with various radical movements in this country, was filed today by the department of justice today by the representatives of a number of organizations interested in law enforcement.

COLDER, RAIN, SNOW PROGRAM

Clinging tenaciously to a determination that spring shall not come into its own yet awhile, winter continues crowding its unwelcome presence onto this latitude, with threats of cold rain and possibly snow.

Fair and colder tonight. Saturday fair in south and increasing (cloudier) in north portion. Possibly local snows or rains near Lake Erie. Colder Sunday.

Colder, rain, snow. Some prospect for the closing days of March, indicating that after all there may be something to the superstition concerning the March Lion and Lamb. The month came in mildly and is expected to go out blustery and cold.

If the weatherman has his dope correct, there is no prospect of relief from disagreeable and unreasonable conditions at least until next week.

However, there are no outdoor events planned for Lima in the immediate future, so there need be no extraordinary worry or fault-finding about the weather conditions.

Anticipating better weather is like waiting for a lute train. You never know when it's coming.

BORAH'S WARNING REACHES HARDING

President Undisturbed by Senator's Speech, However

DAYTONA, Fla. — (Associated Press) — The declaration of Senator Borah of Idaho in his Akron speech Wednesday night that formation of a third party appeared "not improbable" has in nowise disturbed the serenity of President Harding's vacation cruise. Newspapers containing accounts of the Borah speech which advised the Republican party leaders to quit a policy of "gun shooting," after scattered votes and to enunciate a set of forward-looking principles, were received aboard the Pioneer last night after she anchored off New Smyrna, 15 miles south of here.

The politically minded members of the party read the reports of the address with interest but had no comment to make today on reaching her, where the president and his golfing companions played a round on the Sea Breeze course.

Despite Attorney General Daugherty's statement of last week predicting that Mr. Harding would be a candidate for re-election and the political discussion that followed, a good drive or a mashie shot dead to the pin is of more moment to the president and most of the members of his party just now.

LIMA MAY LOSE COMPANY BECAUSE OF LACK OF MEN

Lima stands to lose headquarters company, Second Battalion, 148th Infantry, unless it is soon recruited to full strength, Major Frank Hume said Friday. Seventeen men, most of them for non-commissioned officers' ratings, are needed.

Other cities in Northwestern Ohio are making strong bids for the company, Hume said. Letters have been received from commanding officers inquiring as to the progress of organization, although no time limit has been set.

Lima is to be given the first opportunity to get the company, as it was promised for some time, but unless it can soon show full strength, state commanders will be forced to place it in another city.

Radio men are needed, according to Major Hume, for several positions. Other technical ratings are open.

STOCK ROBBED

TOLEDO — For the second time within a year burglars, early today, took the entire stock of men's clothing from the store of Alfred Elder, at Petersburg, N.Y., 12 miles northwest of here. It is believed by police the burglars removed the stock, which was valued at $2,500, in automobile trucks.

BANKER HELD UP

Bandits Get $40,000 at East St. Louis

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. — (United Press) — Four bandits today held up Samuel D. Barber, assistant cashier of the Southern Illinois National Bank of St. Louis, and escaped with $40,000.

Barber and his chauffeur, Fred Kroger, were crossing the Mississippi river bridge on their return trip after drawing the money from the First National Bank in St. Louis.

MRS. NEWCOMER BURIAL TAKES PLACE SATURDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Newcomer, 56, who died at her home, 157 S. Jackson-st., Thursday, will be held at the residence Saturday at 1 p. m. Rev. G. M. Baumgardner will officiate. Interment in Woodlawn. Death was due to general debility.

Surviving are two sons, W. S. and O. A. Newcomer of Lima, and three daughters, Mrs. Mary Lawry, Chicago, and Mrs. Lauretta Kilburn and Mrs. Ella Penoyer, of Marseilles, Ohio.

Manless Ship Is Victim Of Guns Aimed By Yanks

ABOARD BATTLESHIP MARYLAND — (United Press) — Seventy-five fathoms deep in Panama Bay the gallant old American warship Iowa lies in her grave today, destroyed by the salvos of the dreadnaught Mississippi.

The Iowa, on which Fighting Bob Evans sailed into the Battle of Santiago, was made a target for the big guns of her sisters of the new American navy. There were cheers from the Maryland, Arizona, California and Pennsylvania, as the Mississippi's gunners drove shell after shell into the old warship at a range of nine miles.

Controlled by wireless, with radio waves twisting her rudder and regulating her speed, the Iowa dodged and doubled, zig-zagged and turned, like a living ship with living men aboard, as the explosives rained around.

TIRE PRICES BOOSTED

YOUNGSTOWN — The Republic Rubber Co., today announced an increase of ten cent in the prices of tires and tubes for pleasure cars, effective March 26. The increase is the second since January 1, the first raise amounting to about five per cent.

GIRL NOT INTIMATE WITH TELLEGEN, COUNSEL HOLDS

NEW YORK — Official denial that Miss Stella Larrimore, 19 year old actress and sister of Francine Larrimore, Broadway star, was guilty of intimate relations with Lou Tellegen was made today by her counsel at a hearing in the divorce suit brought against the actor by Geraldine Farrar, former prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera company.

Lewis B. Brodsky, counsel for the young girl, obtained from Referee Mahony an adjournment of a week in order that he might peruse the record pertaining to the alleged courtship of "Miss L." by Tellegen and produce his client at an open hearing to make public denial of the charges in which her name appeared.

MANY AMERICANS NOW IN JAFFA

City Jonah's Refuge Before
Whale Swallowed Him

U.S. SAILORS THROG STORES

Parties Made up for Trips to Jerusalem

JAFFA, Palestine.—(Associated Press).—Jaffa, famous as the refuge of Jonah before he was swallowed by the whale, is assuming the aspect of an American city. Large numbers of Jews from the United States have come here and established stores, schools, cinemas and synagogues on the American plan. American newspapers and magazines of the current month are on sale, and small manufactured articles with the stamp "Made in the U. S. A." are plentiful and reasonably moderate in price. Many patriotic and devoted Jews, seeking the homeland and religious shrine of their fathers, are here to spend the rest of their years in quiet and retirement. Others have set up in business with money made in America. Along the streets one sees familiar American signs like "Jonas Tailor", "Samuel Levy, Stationer", "Isaac Sachs, Pawnbroker", Joseph Kahn, Butcher, etc.

Jaffa is now a regular port of call for American torpedo destroyers in Mediterranean waters. But the exposed roadstead and dangerous submerged rocks frequently force the commanders to put in at the more sheltered port of Haifa, 100 miles north. Almost any day the stores of Jaffa may be seen full of American jack-tars purchasing souvenirs of the Holy Land—religious articles or some of the famous Jaffa oranges or Jordan almonds.

An excellent stone road built by the Turks and improved by the British expeditionary forces leads thru the historic hills of Judea to Jerusalem. The American sailors, if their resources permit, usually make up parties and go to Jerusalem and Bethlehem in automobiles. The railroad connecting Jaffa and Jerusalem is little used by visitors, for the forty-mile trip can be made much more comfortably, faster and cheaper every motor car. Thousands of light American-made cars have been brought to the larger cities, and one might almost imagine himself to be in Detroit or Indianapolis.

Along the plains of Sharon and through the hills of Judea are scattering British concentration camps, with here and there a cemetery of white wooden crosses as a memorial of the great war. Green cactus bushes and the bright yellow of orange groves relieve the monotony of the bare landscape. At long intervals agricultural colonies founded by American Jews are springing into life. The homes are of rough-hewn stone and rarely have windows. Arab policemen, under British tutelage, guard the route through the lonely, uninhabited regions.

Jaffa is in the center of Palestine commerce, just as it was in the days of King Solomon, who brought the giant cedars here with which to build his famous temple. Owing to the shallow, wind-swept harbor, ships are forced to anchor nearly a mile off-shore. Five hundred American tourists tried recently to land here from a big trans-Atlantic liner, but were forced by the high winds to go north to Haifa.

Jaffa is famous throughout the east for its sweet and luscious oranges, which rival those of California and Florida. The orange growing industry is one of the most important economic assets of the country. Most of the members of the large German colony that was here before the war have returned, and they are the only serious competitors of the Jewish fruit growers and city merchants.

LEGISLATION WILL BE DISCUSSED BY BOARD

Members of the legislative committee of the Board of Commerce will meet at the board offices Saturday at 4 p. m. to discuss legislation now before the state assembly in which the board has an interest.

The committee will review such legislation and present a report to the Board for action. Members will be present at open meeting Monday evening at the Elks' club to assist in the discussion of Senate Bill 155, regarding workmen's compensation insurance and Senate Bill 162, regarding equalization of assessments under the corporation franchise tax law, and furnish information on the provisions of the bills.

AILMENT OF LENINE IS DECLARED CURABLE

MOSCOW — Exactly what ails Premier Lenine of Russia was made public today in an official bulletin issued by leading Russian and foreign physicians. It is stated officially physicians agreed the illness is curable.

"Premier Lenine's illness which caused difficulty of speech and a weakening of the right arm and leg, was founded upon a diseased condition of the blood vessels," the bulletin read.

"Recognizing that previous methods of treatment have been correct the consultants believe from the course of procedure that the illness belongs to a category where complete restoration of health is possible."

CLUB EXTENSION PLANNED
Township organizations of the Van Wert-oe Farm bureau are planning extensive work this year in club organization. It was announced Friday. Pig, Corn, Clothing and Food clubs are contemplated by township leaders as affording the best field for organization. The Van Wert-oe Fair board offers prizes each year to members of the clubs who complete their work.

$10,000 PAID FOR FORGED PERMITS

Revealed by U. S. Agents in Brooklyn Liquor Plot

$10,000,000 STOCK SOUGHT

Owners of Warehouse and Others Arrested

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — Two promoters, probably will be arraigned today before United States Commissioner Hinchcock on charges of attempted bribery of two high prohibition officials to connive in the release of ten million dollars worth of whisky from a Brooklyn warehouse.

The charges will be made by Acting Director John A. Murphy and his chief assistant, Lester A. Reeves, who announced last night what they regarded as one of the biggest coups in prohibition enforcement. The announcement followed arrest of brothers, Charles and Ralph Sabatino, owners of the warehouse. Others arrests may follow continuation of the investigation today.

The prohibition men charge the brothers had "bo-betweens" to open negotiations in a conspiracy to release large stores of liquor from the warehouse. The brothers, they said, paid $10,000 in cash to each agent last week on the delivery of forged withdrawal permits, calling for 100 barrels of whisky.

ARRESTS ARRANGED
Higher prohibition officials were taken into the secret, however, said Mr. Murphy, and it was arranged to arrest workmen when actual withdrawal was started yesterday. When seven men were arrested the Sabbatinos went to Murphy complaining that he had failed to "protect" their illegal plot.

The brothers, according to the agents, planned to empty the warehouse of its $10,000,000 stock, paying $10,000 a block for forged permits.

MEETING OF HEALTH MEN DECLARED BIG SUCCESS

Meeting of the county health commissioners of 28 northwestern Ohio counties held at Memorial hall Thursday was brought to a close with the appointment of a committee of three to select the meeting place for the next gathering in June.

"The meeting here was a big success," declared Dr. J. J. Sutter, Allen County health officer, "both from the point of attendance and information gleaned by those attending."

Members of the committee appointed to select the meeting place for the next quarterly meeting are: Dr. H. J. Powell, Bowling Green; Dr. Arlington Allen, Sidney; Dr. A. J. Thomas, Fremont.

KLAN CHIEF SUES FOR $50,000

Action Taken Against Springfield Police Department Head

FALSE ARREST IS CHARGED

Unlawful Imprisonment Also Included in Complaint

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio — (Associated Press) — Worlie M. Cortner, klansman and organizer of the Ku Klux Klan here, recently dismissed of a charge of riotous conspiracy by Police Judge Golden C. Davis, filed suit today in common pleas court asking $50,000 from Chief of Police R. E. O'Brien as a result of the trial and the raid made on Klan headquarters here February 14, by Chief O'Brien and a party of raiders.

The suit sets forth five separate causes of action, on each of which Cortner asks $10,000 damages. The first cause alleges that the chief and his raiding party came to Klan headquarters on the night of February 14, without authority of law or search warrant and that the raid was a deliberate prostitution of the chief's office as an agent of the law and that the raid was conducted to injure Cortner and throw the Klan into disorder; the second alleges false arrest; the third alleges unlawful imprisonment and depriving of bail without cause; the fourth alleges assault; the fifth alleges that the defendant in order to disrupt and destroy the Klan displayed the organization's private papers for an unlawful purpose.

The petition is signed by six attorneys for Cortner.

YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE CHARGE OF SERVICES

Young People's Society of the First Baptist church had charge of the Thursday night meeting held in conjunction with Missionary Week, being observed at the church. Warren S. Kahle gave an address on "The Different Phases of Missionary Thought and Activity" and special music was provided by Miss Belma Chapman and Miss Ethel Shrider.

Echoes from the state convention at Cincinnati held last week and attended by thirty-five members of the congregation were heard. "How a Relative of a Missionary Views the Missionary Work," was given by Lois Thomas, sister of Miss Mary Thomas, the foreign missionary worker from the church.

A pageant will be presented Friday night by the Guild organization comprising young women of the church. Sunday will be All Family day and flowers will be given by the young people to every grandfather and grandmother present.

DRIVE ON SUGAR PRICES, PLAN

Government Will Attempt to Beat Down Quotations

U. S. GRAND JURY MAY ACT

Tariff and Propaganda Proposed as Weapons

(BY WILLIAM J. LOSH)

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Protests from all parts of the country have caused the federal government to determine to use all its powers to beat down the price of sugar and break up the alleged conspiracy which "bulled" the sugar market without justification.

President Harding is understood to have been consulted by telegraph on the matter and to have given his consent to any action that it may be found possible to take.

ACTION IS PROPOSED

Action by the federal government probably will lie along these lines officials said today.

1—Grand Jury proceedings by the department of justice against speculators if any definite evidence indicating a combination in restraint of trade can be obtained.

2—Attempts to "bear" the market by continued statements from high government officials showing that there is no shortage of sugar which would warrant increased prices, but in reality a surplus.

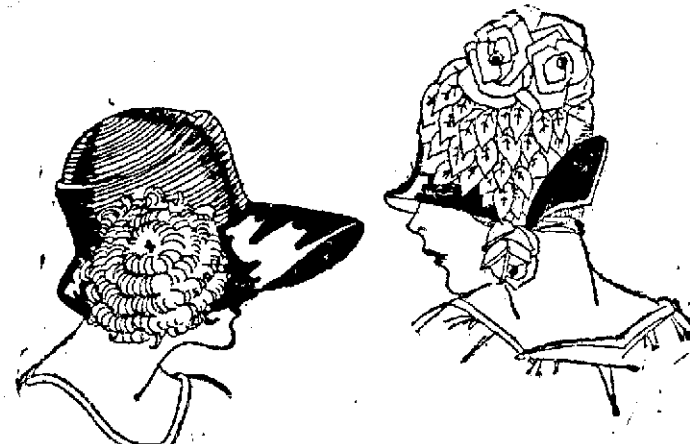

3—A possible investigation by the federal trade commission into alleged unfair trade practices at the request of Secretary Hoover.

4—Utilization of the flexible tariff provisions to decrease sugar duties if this is necessary to bring down prices.

5—An investigation by the department of commerce which is now under way to determine whether any combination of foreign producers are responsible for the recent increase.

The federal trade commission probably will decide today just how far it can go in the matter.

OPPORTUNITY KIDNAPED MIMI FOR MOVIE FAME

(BY GERTRUDE GILLHAM)

You have been reading the Hollywood adventures of Virginia Bradford in The Lima News and have a very authentic picture of the tribulations besetting a girl starting at scratch and trying to make the grade in the movies.

But now your attention is called to a Cinderella story of a girl's entry into the movies. Opportunity didn't merely knock at her door. He opened the door, rushed in and kidnaped her.

The girl is Mimi Palmer. She had a good movie name to start with, she also had beauty. She only had a vague desire to go into the movies.

Mimi posed for fashion pictures. Clothing and millinery and shoe firms togged her up in their best wares and set her before the camera. Their beautiful garments looked even more fetching when Mimi wore them.

Once in a while in small type Mimi would receive a credit line that read:

"Posed by Mimi Palmer."
Mrs. Arthur S. Friend, in scene

Keith Vaudeville at Faurot

A NEW BILL of Keith vaudeville was offered for the first time Thursday at the Faurot Opera House, consisting of a melange of singing, dancing and comedy.

McRae and Clegg, in the initial act, do some sensational bicycling that will make you gasp and wonder how it's done and interspersed with bits of comedy proves highly entertaining.

Prohibition is the topic of discussion by Ted Cleveland and Harry C. Dunforth in an act called, "Are You Next?" They present Volsteadism from a new angle and afford many humorous situations.

Master Gabriel and company present a sketch in which the diminutive comedian faces an encounter with a husky rival for the favor of a girl which causes him to discount the story of

"Fury" is Sigma's Attraction Saturday

"FURY," Richard Barthelmess' new production, has brought about the screen reunion of the star and Dorothy Gish, who fell in love with the part of the leading lady, which was written in the hope that she could be induced to play it. It is appearing at the Sigma for one week starting Saturday.

Mr. Barthelmess is supported by a notable cast, including the star of the legitimate stage, Tyrone Power; Harry MacCollum, who was brought from England to play the half-breed in "John Brown"; Harry Blakemore, who will be remembered as having played the negro porter for three seasons in "The Traveling Salesman"; and considered to be one of the top-notch comedians of the speaking stage.

"Fury" is the story of the son in ing newspapers and fashion magazines saw Mimi's picture. The girl's beauty interested her. There was something distinctive in her various poses.

Without even meeting Miss Palmer, Mrs. Friend wrote her a letter. She told Miss Palmer that if she were interested in entering the movies to take the letter to Arthur S. Friend. He is president of the United Pictures Corporation. Mrs. Friend said nothing about the letter to her husband.

Miss Palmer entered Friend's office. He looked up. He looked again. He rushed Miss Palmer to the cameraman for tests. She photographed perfectly. She had never acted, but Friend engaged her as a leading woman to Alfred Lunt in the film version of Harold MacGrath's "The Ragged Edge." Harrison Wright, the director, says that Mimi Palmer is a born actress.

You see, there are exceptions in the movie game. Some get in without the hardships encountered by Virginia Bradford. But they are exceptions. Fairy godmothers have touched them with a magic wand.

David and Goliath. He is a star of Buster Brown fame as well as having many other splendid characterizations to his credit.

Dave Bender and Harry Armstrong, "Just a Couple Good Men Going Wrong" do a mind reading act, where, in one of the pair as the "madman" gives a humorous physical communication which is an old, old stunt but always enjoyable. And then they go to comic aerobics, but don't go for the purpose of seeing the gymnastics.

Bobby Jackson and company in "The Contraband" offer an act with plenty of singing, dancing and comedy. Bobby dances well and the other man of the company possesses a good voice. Lola Lamond and Maxine Hunt give piano and vocal selections that are good.

which for a time brute strength triumphs, and deals with the transformation of "Boy" Leyton from the timorous second mate of a sailing vessel who is held in contempt even by his own father, to a courageous man of fearless purpose.

Interwoven in the plot is a delightful romance in which Dorothy Gish has the important role as the boarding house slave. The picture is said to rival, if not surpass anything Barthelmess has yet done for the screen.

Much of the picture was taken at sea on a picturesque old schooner off the Maine coast. These ocean scenes are said to constitute some of the most striking bits of marine photography ever taken for a photograph.

mette while playing in a rural town. It is this young man's ambition for the actress which almost ruins her happiness. The mysterious disappearance is explained, and unlooked-for complications set in which assure the continued bliss of the young lovers.

Billie Dove, the beautiful nineteen-year-old actress gives an excellent portrayal of the actress. The supporting cast numbers players of established screen reputation, chief among whom are Cullen Landis, Zazu Pitts, Edythe Chapman and Noah Beery.

The scenario was written from Mr. Footner's story by Edith Kennedy. Arthur Martinelli was responsible for the excellent photography.

Lima Girl Appears In "Ninety and Nine"

THRILLS, speeding engines, fire and an intensely interesting story will be seen in "The Ninety and Nine," an adaptation of Ramsey Morris' famous play of the same name, appearing at the Lyric for four days beginning Saturday.

Director David Smith, who is responsible for Vitagraph's great production, has given to the screen and the public a worthwhile portrayal. The scenes in the picture that are concerned in the action of the story were made in the Sawtooth Range of Southern California. By a curious coincidence the scenes were

"Margie" Coming to Orpheum

"MARGIE," the MacGregor Company, Inc.'s successful musical comedy production, now making a triumphant tour of the leading cities, has all the necessary essentials that make for popular favor, that is a tuneful score, pretty women in abundance, sensational dancing ensembles, a perfect cast and gorgeous scenic settings.

As a matter of fact, "Margie" has scored a 100 per cent victory in the amusement world and is acclaimed the liveliest, happy-go-lucky show in current theatricals.

This revelation in melody, frivolity and thrills will be the attraction at the New Orpheum next Thursday, Friday and Saturday only, and will set a new standard in musical comedy. Seats will be placed on sale at 12 o'clock next Sunday morning. Mail orders will be filled in order of the receipt. A limit of six seats to any one individual has been decided upon. The management of "Margie" is doing this to discourage the persistent efforts of ticket speculators who have been following the big show.

BUSINESS KILLED BY SATISFACTION

Danger of Self-Complacency is Pointed Out

BRINGS ABOUT STAGNATION

Forbes Quotes Prominent Men in Sounding Warning

(BY R. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK — (Special) —

Here's a danger you had better keep in mind.

"The worst mistake I made in the early years of my business," the late F. Wayland Ayer, who built up the largest advertising agency in America, said to me, "was being so satisfied with the results achieved, that I neglected to go after new business with the same energy and determination towards higher and still higher goals."

I have been talking lately with men who know exactly what's what in the tobacco industry in this country and they give me illustrations of men who attained great prominence in the business and who allowed their phenomenal financial success to go to their heads, and are now slipping.

It is notorious for example, that two of the men most widely known in the tobacco industry now habitually spend more time speculating in the stock market than in running their tobacco enterprises. One of these men is at the head of a manufacturing corporation, the other a leader in the retail field.

The mortality among business and financial magnates during the last three years has been heavy. Some of those who have fallen from their perches have been men who were previously regarded as tremendously successful.

True, disaster in some instances was the result of overexpansion. But in most cases the trouble sprang from unwise, unwarranted self-satisfaction. This self-satisfaction brought on stagnation and dry rot. Wealth brought laziness and laziness always drags a man towards the toboggan.

The man who is cocksure that he has "arrived" is ready for the return trip.

This danger of unjustified self-complacency is not confined to the best-up executives. It some afflict junior executives, supervisors, foremen and even ordinary rank and file workers.

Why, only the other day one of our best known railway presidents told me this:

"The road's machinists were not turning out a satisfactory volume of work. The Union heads investigated the situation, convinced themselves that the men were not giving the company their best, engaged an efficiency expert to check things up and warned the men that unless they greatly improved their showing they would all be expelled from the Union."

Here is a plain example of workers becoming self-satisfied without adequate reason.

To attain the largest measure of worth-while success calls for a certain brand of dissatisfaction.

It avails nothing to fret and wall over conditions beyond one's control. It doesn't help a person to be bitterly dissatisfied with the state of general business, the cost of living, the current wage levels or the like.

It is wisest to accept such things calmly and philosophically. But it is never wise to feel completely satisfied with one's own achievements.

I used to be in daily touch with the dry goods industry. I was asked to find quite a proportion of the old, prominent houses absolutely satisfied with their record, and content to take things as they came.

As a matter of fact, the time came when things didn't come. The upshot was that one after another of these old established, ultra-diffused concerns died of dry rot.

I received yesterday from Gordon Selfridge, the American, who has achieved such phenomenal success in running a huge department store in London, a report of the talk he made at the annual meeting of Selfridge and Company, at which there was presented an annual statement showing that, despite the terribly hard times in England, the company had the best year in its history, with the exception of the abnormal period of 1919. Said Mr. Selfridge:

"But these results of ours, which many friends call very good and which we are in no way over-impressed with, have not come of themselves. They have only been brought about by great care and attention to the multitudinous details which make up such a business as this. Things do not do themselves in these difficult times as they did in 1919. No one can run as fast a race on a rough, rocky course as on a smooth easy one, and for this reason, if we are at all inclined to be over-optimistic or self-satisfied, we should be so now. But we are not."

Are you?

Rheumatic Wonder
The World's Greatest Remedy

22 years ago I had Rheumatism very severe. I went to the doctor as soon as I could walk. Then the doctor came to the house. I will never forget what he told my wife and me. He said, "This means six weeks in bed and a lot of trouble." "What's wrong, doctor, that you can't cure Rheumatism?" He smiled and said, "I can't acknowledge it is the most stubborn thing we have to contend with." We wore it out in about nine weeks.

The first three months of 1921, I had the Rheumatism the worst I ever had it. We had a good doctor as ever pulled a pill in Lima or any other town. He could drive the Rheumatism away from my heart but he could not drive it out of my system. He brought another doctor and they all counselled me to get no better. I was so near dead my pulse was down to 21. Those that came in said they never expected to see me walking the streets of Lima again. We all have wondered why doctors cannot cure Rheumatism. It's easy when you get the right medicine. Six hours after I began using Rheumatic Wonder I was 600 per cent better. In three days I was out of bed. At the expiration of eleven days I did not have an ache nor pain about me. Rheumatic Wonder saved my life.

Rheumatic Wonder originated from a very wise M. D. who passed to his reward before realizing the value of his wonderful combination of drugs. We tell everybody that buys Rheumatic Wonder if not satisfied with results to come back and get your money. We sold 47 bottles to men at Pennsylvania St. shops at Toledo; told every man if not satisfied with results obtained to come back and get your money. Not a man gave the least hint of his money back. R. W. is sold by 15 druggists in Lima on a strict guarantee. See next Friday.
